By the grace of Allah, the matrimonial union of the aforementioned couple, both being of legal age and of sound mind, has been solemnised. The Bride, Evelyn, consented in the presence of legally competent witnesses who did jointly hear the words of the contract, understood their meaning, and have signed hereunder. It is hereby affirmed that no religious or legal impediments to this union exist. The two parties having exchanged their mutual acceptance of the marriage in consideration of the dowry as specified above, the union was thereby celebrated.
